THE NEED FOR SPORTS MANAGEMENT

UNTAPPED OPPORTUNITY

Sports Management is gradually evolving in India and is mostly unorganized. A study on Skill Gap in the sports sector, by National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC), found that by the year 2022, India is expected to see a massive deficit in human capital for the sports sector. This primarily includes sports managers and other leadership positions.

RISING DEMAND FOR SPORTS PROFESSIONALS

The aforementioned 'skill gap' goes to show the sports industry's future employability potential. There will be an increased demand for individuals striving towards managerial positions in the industry. The industry needs skilled personnel like Sports Managers, who aside from the technical aspects, would also understand Sports Marketing, application of Law in sports, Sports Finance and more, which is where NASM comes in.

INCREASED PARTICIPATION OF CORPORATES

Giant corporates and conglomerates like Reliance Industries and Hero Motors are now showing interest by endorsing Leagues of Hockey and Football. Thus, bringing about a rise in investment as well as intellect.

FOCUS FROM THE ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY

The involvement of celebrities helps increase the popularity of the sport and confirms higher viewership too. Sports like F1 Grand Prix, the MotoGP and the Pro Kabaddi League have grown in popularity, with the Pro Kabaddi League having been watched by over 500 million people. Also, the industry's merchandise segment employs 5,00,000 people. This number is expected to increase along with the growth of the sports market.

SUCCESS OF LEAGUES

The sports industry is evidently expected to grow, considering the success of leagues like the Indian Premier League in cricket, the Indian Super League in football, Premier Badminton League and the Hockey India League.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

The objective of the courses is to generate skilled Sports Professionals who wish to integrate their passion with their profession. The institute also extends an opportunity to professionals in the field of sports, to upgrade their knowledge; and to individuals from other fields, who wish to enter the sports world. Retired sportspersons who now aspire to continue in the sports arena as Managers, can also benefit from the academic courses.

INDUSTRY OPINION ABOUT NASM

"Sports isn't only defined by what happens on the field, but what happens off the field is what truly defines the sports we see today. I am pleased that NASM has taken the steps to focus on sports careers off the field. I am sure NASM would provide quality education in Sports Management and have its students working all around the world in sports."

Luis Figo

Former Real Madrid,
Barcelona & Inter Milan Player

"In today's time of specializations and global competitiveness, qualified professional Sports Managers are required to fill the gap. NASM is playing a crucial role in the development & growth of the sports sector of India by providing a blend of academic rigour with industry training thus creating the Sports Managers of the future. I am happy to see NASM taking this sports management education initiative. NASM is definitely making many dreams come true by providing these professional programmes to the youth of the country."

Miguel Macedo

FIFA Director,
Players & Promotion Events

"India is going through a paradigm change in the field of sports. Many sports are gaining importance with advent of different leagues like the Indian Super League in football and similar leagues in hockey, kabaddi etc. More careers are opening up in the field of sports which never existed before, and many professionals who are passionate for sports are taking part in this revolution of sports in the country. With lack of credible formal education in sports in India, NASM is a great initiative. The team behind NASM is a professional outfit and have taken many such initiatives before in the field of sports and we wish them all the very best for the same. Let us all participate in building India into a SPORTING NATION."

Kushal Das

General Secretary,
All India Football Federation
